I find it totally disgusting that Microsoft has once again used our Judicial System to their benefit. It never ceases to amaze me that they (Microsoft) have numerous lawsuits pending constantly, and continue to run their business as if nothing has happened! Even after they're found guilty, they continue doing what they were charged for.

Now they are being PENALIZED?? by giving schools refurbished computers with THEIR software on them, and therefore taking the upper hand in their competitors market!

If this is your idea of justice, I'm sure Bill Gates will also be your next recommendation for the Presidential ballot.

Microsoft should be forced to donate their whole $5 billion to the school systems to purchase new Apple computers and software. Now THAT would be punishment!!

The (so-called) settlement they're facing now is without a doubt, a total win - win situation for Microsoft, and all of their stock holders.

Which brings another question to my mind. How many of the people from the DOJ that were involved with this (so-called) settlement have investments in Microsoft?
